BEREAVED PARENTS
AWARENESS MONTH

July is Bereaved Parents Month

Not everyone knows.
But every bereaved parent does.

We remember every single day.
Not just in July.
Not just on birthdays.
Not just when the world feels kind enough to ask.

SAY THEIR NAME.
Share their story.
Honor their light.

Because death may take a life —
but it can't take a parents love.

Keith Joseph Scragg

Dylan Roundtree

He did not conform to the expectations of others or measure his life by the standards of society. Instead, he embraced the world as it came to him- finding joy in the simplest of moments, beauty in the most unexpected places, and meaning in the quiet stillness that so often goes unnoticed.

“WELCOME

We are the parents whose children have died. We are the siblings whose brothers and sisters no longer walk with us through life. We are the grandparents who have buried grand children. We come together as Bereaved Parents of the USA to provide a safe space where grieving families can connect, share our stories, and learn to rebuild our lives.

We attend meetings whenever we can and for as long as we find helpful. We share our fears, confusion, anger, guilt, frustrations, emptiness, and feelings of hopelessness, knowing these emotions will be met with compassion and understanding. As we support, comfort and encourage one another, we offer hope and healing. As we confront the deaths of our loved ones, our shared grief brings us to a common ground that transcends differences, building mutual understanding across the boundaries of culture, race, faith, values, abilities, and lifestyle.

Together we celebrate the lives of our children, siblings, and grandchildren, sharing the joys and the heartbreaks as well as the love that will never fade. Together, strengthened by the bonds we create, we offer what we have learned from one another to every bereaved family, no matter how recent or long ago the death.

We are the Bereaved Parents of the USA.
We welcome you.
